REQUEST FOR RETURNS ON ALL REVENUES TO THE STATE INCLUDING LOANS, GRANTS, DONATIONS ETC

The State Government has noticed recently that not all revenues accruing to the State are properly captured by the Ministry of Finance. Mainly affected by this non-disclosure are loans, grants, donations etc that were given/obtained either locally or internationally by some Ministries, Departments and Agencies of Government.

2. In order to have a proper record of all funds that accrue to the State Government, the Ministry of Finance is hereby requesting all affected Ministries, Department, Agencies /Projects where such funds exist to furnish the Ministry with the full details of the existing loans, grants, donations including the financial institutions where they are domiciled including the account numbers and on any other such fund that may be received in the near future. The report should be forwarded to the State Commissioner, Ministry of Finance and should be rendered on monthly basis with effect from March, 2021.

3. It should be made clear that non-disclosure of such funds would be frowned at by Government and such would attract sanctions which may include restriction on the bank account in which the funds are domiciled.

4. All Accounting Officers are enjoined to give this circular the importance it deserves.

5. Thank you.

V.F. Olajarin, NPOM
Permanent Secretary
